At NK Patricks we value our relationship with our clients and take pride in being our client's primary source of information. We believe in getting it right the first time, every time

PRACTICE AREAS

The nature and scope of our practice pivots on the following broad areas of transactional legal practice.

1. Banking & Finance

We are recognized as a leading adviser on banking and finance law in Kenya. We specialize in complex domestic and cross border finance transactions and have extensive knowledge of leveraged and acquisition finance, structured finance, capital markets, project and real estate finance, derivatives, securitization, preference share finance, Subordinate debt insolvency and restructuring.

The team at NK Patricks LLP has a track record in terms of representation and performance when dealing with corporate clients around the country. The firm also undertakes a great deal of complex and ordinary litigation arising out of banking and finance work. We also have significant expertise in providing general regulatory advice to banks and financial institutions in Kenya.

2. Intellectual Property

NK Patricks LLP has an extensive experience in the intellectual property space and acts for clients from a number of industries within the country. Intellectual property is a major driver of economies not only in Kenya but worldwide as well.

It seeks to protect intangible assets such as trademarks, patents, industrial designs, copyrights, domain names and trade secrets. IP assets are at great risk if they are not protected under the applicable law, and it is therefore prudent for companies and individuals (as rightful owners) to identify, document and register their ideas and products.

3. Conveyancing / Real Estate

Property law in Kenya has a substantial change since the advent of the new constitution. NK Patricks LLP has a solid track record in conveyance practice. The partners have over 5 years of extensive experience in this field. Only an experienced hand can be trusted to make a smooth and legally secure transfer of land from one land owner to another. This applies also in case where death has occurred and transmission under probate is required.

Our services range from due diligence to preparation of appropriate document and eventual transfer of the property. We prepare real property agreements, contracts, leases, powers of attorney, transfer mortgages, charge documents, second charge documents, further charge documents, discharge of charge documents and application to relevant authorities for the necessary clearance certificates and consents in Conveyancing transactions.

In case a property is embroiled in a law suit, our firm is well positioned to handle the suit. In addition, the firm has also been involved in property development advisories which include acquisitions, sales, loan, security and property finance. In this regard, the firm has handled a wide range of property related transactions including advising and structuring of transactions as well as securing the various interests involved.

4. Mergers & Acquisition

Overtime, we have built a strong record on acting on the most significant corporate and M&A transactions across the country. This has greatly been contributed by the breadth of skill and experience held by our team in addition to the good relationship we hold with the regulators which thus enables us to handle large and time-critical transactions. Our services include public acquisitions, private equity transactions, joint ventures, privatization and advising shareholders on how to become more active in the management of their companies.

We represent the parties in transactions in virtually all capacities. This includes; purchasers, sellers, financiers, financial advisers, directors and shareholders. In most cases, we project manage the entire transaction which includes conducting a legal due diligence investigation, providing strategic advice, negotiating terms, drafting documentation and assisting with the implementation of the transaction from a legal point of view.

Our clients range from listed domestic corporations, banks and financial institution.

5. Litigation

NK Patricks LLP has been reputed as among the best in the field of family law and litigation in the region. Litigation is a complicated and sometimes unpredictable process. It requires drafting complex legal documents, conducting extensive research and making smart court arguments to win a case and in this context, our clients have been attracted by our high standards, expertise, efficient delivery and integrity.

The firm continues to maintain strong presence in the High Court, the Court of Appeal and various tribunals.

We endeavor to continue adopting a determined, creative and strategic approach towards our client's litigation matters in all our areas of specialization and expertise

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

In line with the global trend, the firm is committed to ADR with a specific focus on mediation and arbitration.

We strive to facilitate expeditious resolution and disputes while maintaining and mending the relationships involved.

6. Tax Law

We have in-depth knowledge of the tax laws in Kenya and reliably provide clients with innovative legal solutions. Our Tax practice is well regarded for advising on contentious tax matters as well as advising on a corporate full range of corporate commercial and financial transactions. We regularly advise on a wide range of tax matters including domestic and international tax, Value Added Tax, Income Tax, transfer pricing and tax litigation. We also advise on the tax implications of mergers and acquisitions and capital markets transactions.

Our Team

Our attorneys are well trained and have extensive hands-on experience in their respective areas of specialization. It's no secret that a team is as good as its members and that is why our team was carefully picked to ensure that our clients enjoy a high level of service, skill and value. These are the qualities that set us apart from the rest.
